AS CHAMPION HE THINKS HE HAS SOME SAY IN MATCH MAKING.

Me is Auxious to Fight Mitchell, but, to Prevent a Bunning Match, Suggests a Tweive-foot Bing-Boes Not Propose to Imperii the Championship by a Fake.

MINNEAPOLIS, March 8.—Sullivan simply smiled when he read Mitchell's latest card. The big fellow has been carrying himself very straight of late, and looks almost as fine as he ever did in his life out of the ring. The champion, while believing that Mitchell cannot under any circumstances be made to face him, could not resist the temptation of making latest bombastic card:

This is my final ultimatum regarding the contemplated mutch with Mitchell, I will fight itchell any time between Aug. 15 and Sept 17, this year, at the Olympic Club, New Or-leans, for their purse of $25,000 and an outside bet of $10,000 a side. I am ready to post, myself, a deposit of $2,000 now, or the entire sum of $10,000 now, just as Mr. Mitchell elects.

If he is in such a financial condition that he cannot post the full amount of $10,000, I will accept his first deposit of $2,500 now, the second $2,500 in thirty days, third $2,500 by May 1, fourth $2,500 by June 1. I will accept any honest, reputable man as stakeholder.
"I insistlupon the match coming off between the time specified-Aug. 15 and Sept. 17-fo the reason that our engagements do not end This gives Mr. Mitchell a full six months to the termination of my season. I cannot ex-tend the limit of time beyond Sept. 12, as my partner, Mr. Duncan B. Harrison, and myself have made contracts to open our season Sept.

"This fight will not only be for a large purse and outside bet, but also for a title which I have held in America for eleven years, and which I do not propose to jeopardize through any 'fake.' I will sign fair articles or agree to Mr. Mitchell sonding representatives to meet my representatives and drawing up a set of articles. I will, as I stated, agree upon any reputable stakeholder, any reputable and honest referee, and am prepared to make any ordinary and fair concessions to have this man meet me.

articles. I will, as I stated, agree upon any reputable stakeholder, any reputable and honest referee, and am prepared to make any ordinary and fair concessions to have this man meet me.

"I insist upon Marquis of Queensberry rules. This is to prevent foot racing. The smaller the ring, the better I will be pleased. I limit its size to twenty-four foet; I hope it will be twelve.

"As regards Mitchell's assertions that he stood me off twice, it is a deliberate false-hood. I had him almost finished at the Madison Square Garden contest in New York city when Capt. Williams, now Inspector Williams, stopped the contest, his remark being to me: "Stop it, John; do you wantto kill him? Inspector Williams will verify this statement.

"In relation to the fight in Chantilly, France. I can only refer to the records. He fouled me nine times, spiked me five times, and refused to light. I need only quote the last round, which lasted thirty-nine minutes. I chased him in that round five times around the ring. The mud was over a foot deep, and the rain pouring in torrents. He was the better runner, and as a runner, not a lighter, he has a distinct class of his own.

"His reference to me as outweighing him forty pounds is silly and ridiculous in the extreme, and only makes him the laughing stock of fighters and all who know anything about fighting. A heavy weight is exactly 238. I am told Mitchell weighs about 210. I will weigh in condition 203 to 207 pounds. Mitchell will weigh from 106 to 201 pounds, hardly forty pounds difference.

"His excuses are filmsy and foxy. Poor little 210-pound baby! It's a wonder to me that he is permitted to go out without a nurse. His papa-in-law. Pony Moore, should see to this.

"By the way, do you know what has become of that £50,000 of English money that they claimed to bring over with them to back either Slavin or Mitchell with? I heard a great deal about that when I was in Australia. 1,000 miles about me and heard slavin, almost immediately on my arrival home again from Australia. Base heavy he my entire career laked or showed the white teather.

"Now they have my ultimatum, and if they mean fight let them cover my money; it is ready. I'll go further and make this inducement; I'll pay Mitchell's training expenses up to $500 if he will meet me. The same offer goes to Blavin."

Bullivan alone made this statement. In the room at the time were Duncan B. Harrison. Bullivan's partner; Frank Moran, treasurer of the combination, and Jack Ashton, Sullivan's sparring partner.

the combination, and Jack Ashton, Sullivan's sparring partner.

Ducan B. Harrison was asked what Sullivan proposed to do about Corbett's challenge. Oh that's all a bluff." was the reply.

Yes, but the money is up. That is pretty mearly business, is it not?"

Well, Corbett will get all the chance he wants in good time. But the man we are after now is Mitchell. The terms of John L. Sullivan are before Mitchell. Now let us see what he will do?"

Yes, but Brady offers a $5,000 forfeit for Corbett. If Sullivan thinks Jim is such a mark he ought to take that in some night after the show." mark he ought to take that in some night the show."

We are, as I have said, dealing with Mitchell now. When we are through with him there will be time enough to engage these wher fellows. None of them want to fight, anyhow. They are all 'fakirs."

L TAWING THE COLOR LINE ON DIXON. T. | Feather-weight Champion Excluded

FALO. March'S. - Therelwas a scene of unusu: 1 excitement at the Hotel Genesee vesterday all on account of the appearance of George Dixin, champion feather-weight pugilist of the world. The colored boy and his manager, Tom O'Rourke, came to the city on Sunday night. They at once went to the Genesee, regsight. They at once went to the Genesee, registered, and had dinner. After breakfast, however, yesterday morning they were told that Dixon would not be allowed in the dining room thereafter, and the head waiter had orders not to allow the colored pugilist to eat in the public dining room, as a guest had objected.

Manager O'llourke had an excited conference with the manager of the hotel, the outcome of which was that the ban upon Dixon was removed. Both Dixon and O'llourke were very indignant over the affair.

Dixon was asked as to his plans for another fight. He replied that O'llourke was negotiating for a match with Fred Jehnston of England.

The Olympic Club of New Orleans offers a purse of $5,000, but Dixon said that he would not fight there, as the color line is drawn too strongly. He preferred the California Club. If Johnston objects to come to America, Dixon is ready to go to England. If the match with Johnston should fall through. Dixon will meet Van Heest at 117 pounds, the men to weigh in at the ring side.

The Olympic Club Has Sent Articles to Sullivon and Mitchell.

NEW OBLEANS, March 8.—The Olympic Club has forwarded the preliminary articles of agreement to Sullivan and Mitchell for the $25,000 fight to take place this fall. But to make assurance doubly sure, the club will send on Capt. Williams, the club's match-send on Capt. Williams, the club's matchmaker, this week to see the two men and, if possible, complete negotistions. It is probable, therefore, that all the terms will be arranged within a week.

Fitzainmons, who is here, is very anxious to meet Ted Fritchard, but thinks it would be well to postpone the affair until next Mardi Gras. The Sullivan-Mitchell fight coming in the fall, it would be unwise, he says, to have another fight so close upon its heels. The objection to a fight in ten weeks is that it would fall during the hot season and when so many persons are out of town.

Fitzsimmons and Carroll give a sparring exhintion here on Thursday, and leave for New York on Saturday. Fitzsimmons wants to give a performance in New York for Maher's benefft. At present Fitz is suffering from rheumatism and a sprained thumb.

MAHER MAKES AN EXCUSE. Thinks He Was Made a Dupe and Was No. in Proper Tentning.

PRILADELPHIA, March 8.-Peter Maher was een this morning in the northern part of the city, where, it is said, he has purchased a ouse and intends to make it his permanent residence. The Irish champion was neatly dressed, seemed to be in good spirits, and showed but little effects of his late fight in New Orleans. In speaking about the battle. however, there was considerable bitterness in

"Why," said he, "they wouldn't let me put on the gloves until I stepped in the ring and faced Fitzsimmons. It was a put-up scheme from the start, and I was made a dupe. "I'll meet Fitzsimmons again at any time for a purse. I have no feeling against him. He is a nice, gentlemanly fellow, but I want to

He is a nice, gentlemanly fellow, but I want to get at him again.

"The fight was fair enough, as far as it went, but I want to get at him again.

"The fight was fair enough, as far as it went, but I wan outclassed, and had not the slightost idea of Fitzsimmona's way of fighting. As soon as we began the mill I saw that he was very shifty, and that I had a very hard man to deal with. You see, when I was in training it was pure fighting, no gloves, no sparring. Make of accurate sparring tactics placed me at once at great disadvantage. Fitzsimmons soon perceived that, and rushed at me with a terrific onslaught of sparring blows. I was dazed.

"Besides all this, I was not in proper leadth and condition to fight when I did. My training was poor, to use a mild term. I honestly believe that with first-class training and good physical condition I could whip Fitzsimmons, and estally at that."

Reforring to the intense desnondency which has been attributed to him. Maher said that he naturally felt blue over the result. "But I'll tell ye, me lad, it's not so despondent it is over the fifth I am, as it is over the moan way I have been duped. There will be a day of reckoning yet."

FIRST BLOOD FOR BROOKLYN.

The Boys Showed Up Well, Considering the Bad Condition of the Ground. Ocata, March & - Late last night the wind shifted and this place was visited by a very heavy rain storm. All morning the downpour was measant, but the beauty of Ocala streets is that they dry quickly. This was the case out at the Exposition ground, where the Brooklyns have been practising daily. At 3 o'clock Ward came to town, and he and Lawson agreed to play the game. O'Brien was the only man who did not put on his uniform to-day. Darby passed a had night and subcred slightly from fever. He probably caught cold taking a shower from fever. He probably caught cold taking a shower bath yesterlay morning. Darby did service at the ticket box this afternoon, and many a young colored boy has cause to thank the good-natured fielder for letting him in for a dime. The "All I hab hom," cry was too much for Darby. Burns is getting himself info better shape all the time. To-day Tommy seemed in his element, and adopted his usual comical coaching tactics. One negro woman in the crowd, in admiration of this phase of the Brooklyn player's talent, exclaimed: "lat day boss is a honey of a coacher."

Jerry, who is also paying strict attention to business, has also come in for a fair share of attention. Hub Collins showed up this aftarnoon near Jacksonville. They are stopping with the team at the Monteun and the Adolf with the team at the Monteun his afternoon began about 3:50 o'clock. For a wet day there was a very fair crowd present. Hart's batting was superb, and his base running was right up to the mark. The boys as a rule fielded well, considering the bad condition of the ground. The Tampas fielding was very poor. The outfield, however, did good work. Only seven innings were played, on account of darkness. Hart replaced Foutz in the box in the fifth, and Stein took Hart's place in the deld. The score:
